Concert - Janice Fehlauer | 7:30 p.m. $12 adults; $8 students (any age)

Refreshments will be served following the concert.

Canadian pianist Janice Fehlauer was the gold medalist in the Wideman International Piano Competition, the winner of the University of North Texas Concerto Competition, and the second prize winner in both the Los Angeles International Liszt Competition and the Hodges Competition for 20th-Century Music. She has appeared as a concerto soloist across the USA and Canada including performances with the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra, North Florida Symphony Orchestra, Meridian Symphony Orchestra, Lewisville Symphony Orchestra, and the UNT Symphony Orchestra. Janice has also performed solo recitals for the Philips Gallery in Washington, D.C. and the Myra Hess Memorial Concerts Series at the Chicago Cultural Center, broadcast live on WFMT.

In addition to her solo performances, Janice is a sought-after collaborative pianist who was on the staff of the American Institute of Musical Studies in Austria for two summers. She served at The Dallas Opera as repetiteur and as assistant chorus master, and has also played and coached for Houston Grand Opera's educational programs, Fort Worth Opera, UNT Opera Theater, Moores Opera Center, and the Houston Symphony Chorus.

Janice began her musical training in her hometown in British Columbia, where she received the Associate Diploma from the Royal Conservatory of Music in piano and violin. She also holds degrees in music from the University of British Columbia and the University of North Texas, and a doctorate from the University of Houston. She currently teaches at the Kingwood Music School.
