

GCMA Meeting Minutes for February 6, 2013

President Mariam McFalls called the meeting to order at Forshey Piano Company at 10:00 am.

Nancy Hansen, substituting for Jerene Murray, Secretary, read the minutes, which were approved as read.

Ray Emerson gave the Treasurer's report:

*Operating Account: January balance: $8,137.85

*Savings Account: January balance: 4,757.10

Old Business

Reminding the members of the upcoming election of officers, President McFalls led a discussion on the duties of officers. Beatrice Stanley, Cindy Kuenneke and Claudia Cossio volunteered to be on the nominating committee.

Susan Hanks answered questions about the upcoming Gold Cup Festival. She mentioned that there will be more time allotted this year for individual adjudications.

New Business

New member Katherine ?Last Name? from Ohio was introduced.

Announcements

Beatrice Stanley, leader of the Houston Young Artists, announced that Clear Lake High School was awarded the title of best high school orchestra in the area for 2011 and 2013. There is a special audition for instrumentalists for HYA on April 20, she added.

Jennifer Key announced the NFMC and TFMC convention will be in Tyler this year.

There will be a Meet and Share meeting at Jerri Pippert's home on February 20, 9:30 am.

Cindy Kuenneke said there are 3 tickets left for the upcoming Symphony Guild Home Tour.

Ms. Kuenneke updated the group on the status of Donna Crenshaw's daughter and husband who are ill.

The next meeting will be at Forshey Piano on April 5 at 10:00 am with a workshop to follow, announced President McFalls.

President McFalls adjourned the meeting at 10:45am.

Nancy Hansen