

GCMA meeting minutes May 7, 2014

President Mariam McFalls called the meeting to order at 10:04 at Jerri Pippert's lovely home 15515 Driftwood Oak Ct., Houston, TX 77059

Minutes were read by Pres. M. McFalls and corrected.

Gold Cups are available at Jennifer Key's home

Joy Timmons announced that there are no new members

Treasurer, Jennifer Key gave the Treasurer's report. The report is in the GCMA binder.

Andrea Warren reported that the Sonatina trophies are at this meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

Madge Hunt sent around a get well card for Millie Halbert for members to sign. She is doing well.

Pres. M. McFalls requested members to email to her updated information for the 2014-15 Yearbook
Yearbook will be assembled in August.

Pres. M. McFalls stated that there is a possibility that members that have not paid their dues ($45 now $50 after June 30) will not be included in the new yearbook.

Pres. M. McFalls requested membership to email to her the teacher survey – listing specialty, fees, etc.
Discussion about how to make it available to members followed.

Board Meeting in late June TBA

Kay Belk will help with Jazz Pop

Sonatina Festival duties explained and a request for help "Share the Love" Thank you to Catherine Bobbs for volunteering.

Prices for trophy labels discussed. No decision

Donna Crenshaw thanked the membership for the sympathy card and flowers.

Mariam McFalls passed around flyers announcing the Greek Festival this weekend in Seabrook.

Beatrice Stanley passed around flyers announcing auditions for Houston Young Artists' Concert auditions in December. The pre-screening will be by video only and the actual audition will be at Duncan Hall- Rice University

Music and Arts has a teacher appreciation week this week with 30% off all in store all week.

Norene Emerson announced Autumn Artists Festival Oct. 16-19. The artist will be Stephen Beus. She read a glowing review of the artist from the Fort Worth Telegram paper.

Madge Hunt announce that Carol Corey will have foot surgery

Jennifer Key will be State Gold Cup Chairman

Cindy Kuenneke announced the Bay Area Symphony League May 14 Lakewood Yacht Club presenting the "Notables" Symphony League cleared $49,000.00 this year in its annual home tour to be used in programs in schools.

The meeting was adjourned 11:15 to a luncheon catered by La Madeleine.