

GCMA Meeting, October 2, 2015

Oct. 2, 2015 GCMA general meeting was called to order by VP in charge of membership, Joy Timmons at University Baptist Church.

Sharon Stewart , president of GCMA, is at a funeral.

Carole Barwick reminded all members to bring 2 doz. Cookies to the Autumn Artist Festival Recital on Friday, Nov. 6. She stated that Ying Zhang is soliciting applications for the private lessons and master class during the Autumn Artist Festival. She passed around flyers of the events. Jennifer Key is taking the ticket money. $50.00/complete package –all 3 days. Please make out checks to GCMA. She requested that members distribute flyers to Rice and other places. UH, high schools, and San Jac College already have the flyers. Jennifer Key still has more tickets in case members need more.

Cindy Kuenneke announced that articles about the Autumn Artist Festival are in the following newspapers: CL area Community Newsletter, LC newspaper, Seabrook newspaper and possibly will go in the Citizen. She reminded all GCMA members to distribute information about the Autumn Artist Festival to all contacts.

Cindy Kuenneke passed around Carole Barwick's music that she is selling. Carole Barwick will be retiring and will donate all money collected to a scholarship fund.

Beatrice Stanley read the minutes of the last meeting. They were approved as read.

The attendance sheet was passed around.

There is no treasurer's report.

Cindy Kuenneke passed around a sign-up sheet for the Jazz Pop Festival requesting all teachers to write an estimated number of participants in that event. Special requests are to be written on the registration form.

Jennifer Key has the Gold Cup bulletins.

GCMA yearbooks are here today.

Madge Hunt sent a get well card to Ray Emerson.
