

The general meeting of GCMA was called to order by President, Sharon Stewart at 10:35 on Feb. 8, 2019 at UBC.

Beatrice Stanley, recording secretary, read the previous meeting's minutes. They were approved as corrected.

Jennifer Key, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report.

Sharon Stewart thanked vice president in charge of programs, Lara Fulcher, for January's program. She suggested to the Autumn Artist committee that they explore the possibility of getting Gjergji Gaqi and his brother for a duet presentation.

Lara Fulcher announced that Thomas Wells will be giving a workshop on Technic and Musicianship after the April meeting.

Joy Timmons, membership chair announced no new members today.

Susan Hanks, Gold Cup chair, went through the packet for the March 2 Gold Cup to verify all information about assignments was correct and understood by the members.

Sharon Stewart announced an open board position of Vice President in chart of programs.

Cindy Kuenneke announced Bay Area Symphony League on Feb. 20 at St. Thomas the Apostle Episcopal Church.

Lisa Rajulu announced a request for funds for the SIFAT in Ecuador. GCMA is donating $100 to the cause.

Beatrice Stanley requested a discussion of Gold Cup fees. That will be brought up at the summer GCMA board meeting.

Respectfully submitted

Beatrice Stanley